

Here's what some of our employees have to say about Fulton Hogan:

"My family and I tried for two years to gain employment and get the relevant visas to move to New Zealand. It was difficult as I work in a specialised area of road construction, which was not on the list of recognised qualifications with the immigration board.

We found Fulton Hogan's website and once we had made contact things went better than we could ever have imagined. An interview was arranged via a video link and a contract was sent to us in the UK. We were given all the advice we needed to navigate the immigration process and were also put in touch with moving companies. Fulton Hogan even organised our hotel for us. The whole process from first contact to arrival in New Zealand took six months. On arrival in the country Fulton Hogan continued to support us by allowing us enough time to find a good rental property in a suitable area for our family.

My career development options are far greater than in the UK and we are in no doubt that we made the right choice in coming to Fulton Hogan."

Scott - Wirtgen milling operator/fitter, Auckland milling dept

"I've always dreamed of a better life in a forward thinking and peaceful country. Fortunately I've landed a job with one of the best employers in New Zealand. Thanks to the efficiency of the Fulton Hogan team the migration process took less than 3 months.

New Zealand is an excellent place to live and grow in and Fulton Hogan is a very responsible employer that places a high premium on a balanced work and family life. My partner and I would definitely encourage people to join Fulton Hogan.

Angelique - Quantity Surveyor, Auckland

"There are almost endless opportunities for young engineers to be involved in some outstanding projects with Fulton Hogan in New Zealand. Fulton Hogan have made me feel valued with a friendly, approachable and relaxed attitude from all levels of management. My own personal experience so far has been life changing."

Keith - Engineer, Orewa
